NO. 50

DANVILLE.

The colored fair is in progress and is largely attended.

The Danville base ball team defeated Perryville here Tuesday by a score of 12 to 3. Batteries Grinstead and Muiini; Parks and Casey.

Miss Martha Batterton, the handsome daughter of Mr. George Batterton, will be married in October to Dr. C. L. Bell, of Hartford City, Ind. They will go to Europe and after their return will reside in New York City.

Dr. W. C. Roberts, president of Centre College, will arrive in Danville next week. He is now preaching in Orange, New Jersey. Under his management the college has flattering prospects for a good year.

Prof. J. Me. Gordon, of Cambridge, has been selected as professor of Physics and Chemistry in Centre College. He is a graduate of Princeton and comes highly recommended, having held last year the position of assistant professor at Harvard.

Mr. Keene Ryan, a student of Danville Theological Seminary last year, enlisted as telegrapher at Camp Thomas, but was taken sick and has gotten his discharge on that account. He was delicate but a fine student at college and will some day make an excellent minister.

Dr. Spurgeon Cheek, of the Hospital corps at Camp Thomas, was in town Wednesday. Miss Mary Bruce, of Stanford, is visiting Miss Katie Lee Yeager. Miss Nettie Wray, of Stanford, is the guest of Miss Bessie Richards. Dr. A. B. Nelson and wife are attending the convention of National Association of Scientists at Boston. Miss Vanda Hardin, of Bowling Green, is visiting Miss Mary Wood. Miss Mary Hays Letcher entertained at a watermelon party Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6. About 16 were present. Mrs. Alice Haines is visiting her brother, Dr. S. P. Grant. Miss Sarah Cecil has returned from Lexington. The 5th anniversary of the L. A. S. S. was celebrated at the home of Miss Eliza Caldwell Wednesday. The meaning of the above four letters is a secret and has never been divulged by any of them. Miss Annie Royston, of Garrard, is the guest of Mrs. G. H. Bruce. Misses Dora and Alleen Maloney, of Craig City, Va., are visiting Miss Lella Grant. L. F. Marshall, of Denning, New Mexico, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Cabell Breckinridge, has returned home. Robert Fisher, of St. Louis, after a pleasant visit to his sisters, has returned home. Mrs. Frank Gileher has returned from Louisville. Mrs. John Stout is convalescent. Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Anderson have returned from the East. J. L. Frohman is at Rockcastle Springs. Miss Mary Helm has gone to Lexington to the Tebbitts Lucas wedding. Prof. and Mrs. J. C. Fales are visiting in Lebanon. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Gentry, of Kansas City, are visiting Col. Nicholas McDowell. Jeff Yeager is ill. Miss Madge Sea, of Independence, Mo., is visiting Miss Otilie Shelton. Mesdames Charles Cecil, A. B. Rust, Miss H. A. Wilson and Mrs. Center left yesterday for Mackinac.

KY. GROWERS' INSURANCE CO.

IN A MOST FLOURISHING CONDITION.

The Kentucky Growers' Insurance Co., in which the farmers of Lincoln county are so largely interested, held its annual meeting at Lexington, Tuesday, Aug. 16th. The Legislative Board is composed of W. P. Cox, of Anderson county; D. W. Dunn, Boyle; A. J. Gorham, Fayette; Sidney Bedford, Franklin; G. T. Higginbotham, Garrard; A. L. Chrisman, Jessamine; J. K. Baughman, Lincoln; A. H. Vansant, Mercer; J. A. Logan, Shelby; C. S. Williams, Woodford; together with the Executive Board, composed of J. E. Delph, president, R. B. Kendall, secretary, L. P. Spurr, J. D. Hinton, W. H. Warren and J. C. Bosworth. After an examination of the business for the past year the board found the company in a flourishing condition, having met all losses and more than doubled its business. It now carries $1,225,000 of insurance. Farmers desiring to save money will find it to their interest to consider this system of protection against fire, lightning and wind.

Call on J. K. Baughman, Hustonville, chairman Lincoln county board, H. C. Baughman, Stanford, or Dr. E. M. Estes, McKinney, or write home office No. 69 E. Short St., Lexington, for circulars or information.

R. B. KENDALL, Gen. Mgr., Lexington, Ky.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR FLUX.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists."

MIDDLEBURG.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McWhorter, Jr., died on the 18th.

Rev. Edgar Fogle will preach at the Baptist church Sunday at 11 o'clock. Rev. Middleton, of Pleasant Point, will begin a protracted meeting at Grove on the 1st Sunday in September.

Messrs. W. B. Hill, J. C. Coulter, Mc. C. Wheat, Dave Allen and Emmett McCormack and their better halves are at Russell Springs attending the fair. Miss Bettie Coulter accompanied them.

We have heretofore entertained a most favorable opinion of our old friend, G. S. McKinney, and was shocked a few days since to see him in company with J. H. McWhorter. Mr. McKinney should be more careful in the selection of associates when he comes down here, otherwise his friends will draw the line, though the deportment of Mr. McWhorter is somewhat improved since he moved to this county. He lived for a number of years in an obscure portion of Lincoln county, where the writer and other good missionary Baptists used to contribute of their means to send the gospel to him.

After an illness of nearly six weeks of Bright's disease, James M. Durham passed peacefully away at 5 o'clock Monday morning, aged 44 years. Deceased was born and raised in Taylor county, but moved to this place eight years ago where he has since lived. He was a good citizen and a fine business man, having by his honest and upright dealings built up a most profitable mercantile business here. He was postmaster here during Cleveland's last administration and was so obliging that even his political enemies regretted it when his term expired. A good man is gone and the community as well as his most excellent family will miss him. He leaves besides a wife four children, three boys, George, Fred and Breck, the latter but six years old, and a daughter, Mrs. Dr. I. S. Wesley, of Lancaster. After a very appropriate and touching funeral discourse Monday evening at the Baptist church by Rev. J. Q. Montgomery, his pastor, the remains were taken charge of by the Masonic fraternity and followed by a large concourse of admiring friends and neighbors to their last resting place in Middleburg cemetery.

NEWS IN THE VICINAGE.

Wm. Sharp, aged 81, at one time sheriff of Estill county, died in Madison.

James D. Walters, of Troop D., 6th U. S. Cavalry, died at New Haven, Conn. He was from Knox county, Ky. Gov. Bradley refused to pardon Jesse Huff from Laurel for detaining a woman and W. N. Triplett, of Madison, for breach of the peace.

Mrs. Emma Lackey Tucker, wife of Pleasant Tucker, and related to a number of people in this county, died at Parksville of cancer a few days ago.

At a picnic at Cobb Mountain, Estill county, Shing Lane and Ed Noland became involved in a quarrel, which ended in Noland stabbing Lane to death.

The latest journalistic enterprise at Middlesboro is to be known as "The Mountaineer," with Dorth Campbell and Tim Pennington at the head of it. It is to be a monthly magazine.

Clarence Parks, whose mother is a sister of Mrs. John Traylor, died in Garrard Sunday of typhoid fever contracted at Chickamauga. He was a private in Capt. Duncan's company.

Capt. J. B. Kerr, of the Sixth cavalry, wounded at Santiago, who is in Danville on a furlough, has accepted the position of military attaché of the Paris Fair Commission and sails September 15. He is a brother of Mrs. M. P. Tunis.

At Middlesboro, the mammoth steel plant of the Watts steel and iron syndicate, is in operation after seven years of inactivity. All of the iron furnaces of this institution are in operation and for the first time in the history of the Magic City iron and steel are being produced.

A short notice in our last told of the death of James M. Durham, one of the best men in the Middleburg section, and a merchant at that place. He was afflicted with a complication of diseases. He was postmaster under Cleveland's last administration and a prominent Mason. He was the father of Mrs. Dr. I. S. Wesley, of Lancaster, and also Fred Durham, Casey county's well-known fat boy.

A merchant and grain dealer at Waddy, Shelby county, found posted on his doors a notice warning him that unless he paid a higher price for wheat and sold his goods cheaper his stores and grain elevators would be blown up with dynamite.

John Wesley Campbell and wife, Bowling Green, signed a document in the circuit court, the former to stop running after women and drinking whiskey and the latter to stop using snuff and tobacco and cease to quarrel at the old man.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Only one republican selected by the State election commission on the county boards declined to serve, and he in the same breath asked the commission not to accept his resignation.

Speaking of the annexation question, Mark Hanna, president de facto, said: "The Philippines is a problem we can not solve in a hurry. We must retain a coaling station there, but I do not think it likely we shall want more than Manila and its harbor."

Linn Gooch for Congress in 1898, Wm. Goebel for governor in 1899, Wm. Jennings Bryan for president in 1900, Joe Blackburn for senator in 1901, free silver for the people always, and then, and not till then, will these United States be the abiding place of General Prosperity.—Covington Commonwealth.

If John B. Thompson's scheme to reduce the manufacture of whisky, is consummated, it will throw 25 or 30 storekeepers and gaugers out in the 7th district alone. The general quiet prevailing in the whisky business has already laid off 40 revenue men there. Collector Roberts is preparing a further list to lay off.

The practical abandonment of the Third, Congressman Rhea's district, and the Eighth, where it is conceded Gilbert, democrat, will succeed Congressman Davison, is understood to mean that the republicans have decided to put their main efforts in the Fifth, Ninth and Tenth, represented by Evans, Pugh and Fitzpatrick respectively.—Owensboro Messenger.

Mr. Watterson is O. K. He says: "I am an expansionist of the deepest dye. I believe we should not only have Porto Rico, but that we should keep every island in the Philippines. In short, I believe that wherever the stars and stripes have been raised, at a cost of blood or otherwise, they should float from henceforth forever. I am not in favor of hauling down a single American flag that has been raised during this war, and I believe that my sentiments in this regard are the sentiments of the great mass of the American people."

Hon. James B. McCreary, in an interview in the Louisville Dispatch, denies the statements attributed to him by the Washington correspondents of the Courier-Journal and Commercial, about our disposition of the Philippines. "As far as the Louisville Courier-Journal is concerned I will say," said the ex-governor, "that I have not and would not knowingly talk to one of its correspondents on any subject."

As both Richmond papers copy the first interview, apparently with the governor's sanction, there seems to be a "story" out somewhere. Moreover the latter remark does not sound like the courteous and polite Madison county gentleman.

KENTUCKY HOUSES OF REFORM.

In the course of a thoughtful article on the Kentucky Houses of Reform, soon to be a reality, the Louisville Post says: It has been decided, we understand, to have a school for boys and for girls, under one executive management, though the buildings for girls will be probably half a mile distant from the buildings erected for the boys. This simplifies the control and economizes both labor and money. Certainly it enables the managers to secure far better accommodations for the money appropriated for building and grounds than if the sum should be divided. Kentucky will be satisfied with nothing less than the best school of the kind. Its influence should go far to reforming our workhouse and penitentiaries by checking crime at its source and redeeming the young, rather than educating them in criminal knowledge by criminal association. The plans so far adopted have, we understand, the hearty approval of the Governor and they will, we have no doubt, be supported by an intelligent public opinion.

WORSE THAN THEFT.—A man who takes a paper and, when asked for what is due on it, tells the postmaster to mark it "refused" is a thief of the worst type. If a party does not want a paper he should so notify the publisher when the time expires and not wait until several dollars are due on it and then try to sneak out of paying for it.—Lancaster Record.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

John Bowdin, aged 16, and Miss Dora Sprowle, 14, were married in Boone county Tuesday.

John Howard, of New Albany, Ind., broke the record by marrying his seventh wife. He is 79 years old.

Charles W. Jelf, local editor of the Nicholasville Democrat, and Miss Julia Carter were married at Lexington, Wednesday.

G. S. Leeper, a widower of 45 and Mrs. Virginia Thomas, the same age, were married by Judge J. P. Bailey at the court-house Wednesday.

The wife of J. C. Dixon, a brother-in-law of Gov. Brown, has been sued for divorce by his wife at Henderson, on the grounds of cruelty and inhuman treatment and asks for $100 a month alimony.

The engagement of the Princess Kaiulani, former heiress to the Hawaiian kingdom, and Capt. Putnam Bradley Strong, only son of ex-Mayor Strong, of New York, is announced. The Captain is the youngest aide on the staff of Gen. Merritt and is now at Manila.

Will Johnston, who disappeared from Sedalia, Mo., last June, on the day set for his wedding with Miss Sadie Hinkle, died at Rocky Ford, Col., of typhoid fever. He suddenly made up his mind that he was not able to support a wife, and ran away.

Marcel Handy, a young farmer of Madison, eloped with Miss Sydney Oldham, the pretty daughter of Charles Oldham, a prosperous farmer of the same locality. The marriage did not please the bride's father, who went after her with a buggy whip on her return, and compelled her to return to the parental shelter. The young groom laid his plans and stole his bride back on the next night, and now has her secured safely against his irate father-in-law and says he will hold her against all odds.

The engagement of Miss Martha Batterton, of Danville, and Dr. Clarence Lee Bell, of Hartford City, Ind., is announced. The wedding will take place in October. Dr. Bell is a son of George D. Bell, formerly of Louisville. Miss Martha who is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Batterton, is widely known as one of Kentucky's most beautiful young women, combining, to rare degree, those admirable qualities of heart and mind necessary in a model woman.—Advocate.

LANCASTER.

Rufus Moss, a prosperous young farmer, and Miss Maybelle Sherron, one of the prettiest girls in Lancaster, drove to Danville yesterday and were married by Rev. Lynch in the parlors of the Gilcher House. After a short tour they will return home and sue for the parental blessing which they failed to secure before starting.

The grand jury asked for an additional two days as they were unable to handle the volume of business which came before them in the allotted six. The case against Porter Wearren for murder was continued at the instance of the defense because of their inability to get important witnesses here, who are with the army at Chickamauga. Wearren's bond was raised from $500 to $1,500, and was readily given. Wearren killed a Negro named Leavell on Battle Row last April. Ed Clouse is on trial for the killing of W. B. Tracy near Bryantsville. The testimony is all in and the counsel are arguing the case.

Ed Gaines went to Middlesboro Sunday. John Anderson, of McKinney, is visiting the Misses Tillet. Horace Herndon and Fred Frisbie are spending a few weeks at Martinsville, Ind. Miss Kate Walker, of Lexington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Landram. Mrs. John Rose and children, of Louisville, are visiting Mrs. Moody Hardin. Chas. Reid, of Chickamauga, and Miss Ford, of Lexington, are visiting the home-folks. Miss Eudoxie Moss gave a watermelon feast Friday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Broom, of Mississippi. Miss Rella Arnold will entertain this evening in honor of the Misses Wyatt, of Lexington.

The total railway mileage in the United States is 184,428 miles, an increase of 1,651 miles during the year. Ninety-five per cent. of the mileage is laid with steel rails. The total number of locomotives in service is 35,986. The number of passenger cars is 33,626, and of freight cars, 1,221,730. The number of men employed is 823,476 and they were paid $465,091,581 for the year. One passenger was killed out of 2,204,708 and one injured out of 175,115 during the year 1897.

The report to the national meeting of the Knights of Pythias at Indianapolis shows that the total number of subordinate lodges is 6,683, and the total number of members 468,269, a net gain during the calendar year of 46 lodges and a net loss of 1,022 members. This is the first time since 1878 that a loss has been shown. The finances are a little short too and a greater economy is suggested.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - AUG. 26, 1898

W. P. WALTON.

Democratic Nominee For Congress.

HON. G. G. GILBERT,

Of Shelby County.

BECAUSE the petition to the war department to be mustered out of service by the men of Col. Galt's regiment, did not pass through his hands, a big row has been raised and the men were drawn up in line to be dishonorably discharged if they wanted to be. Several accepted the proposition and a number of non-commissioned officers were reduced to the ranks for inciting mutiny. The men are not to be blamed for wanting to get out of the army now that the war is over. Most of them can do much better at home and many have families dependent on them. It is only the officers, who have a fat thing, that want to stay in the service, but it is not to their credit to wish to do so at the expense of their men, not to say anything of the government.

AMONG the numerous investigations that will be made now that the war is over, none deserves a more thorough sifting than the criminal neglect of the sick at Chickamauga. The stories of suffering and death that come from there are heart-rending and those who are responsible for the state of affairs deserve not only the severest censure but the most condign punishment. The men are said to have been treated worse than hogs and left to die with fevers with scarce a bit of attention. Whipper snapper doctors with political pulls, but no practice at home, were commissioned to attend to the brave fellows and their neglect of them should be saddled on the right parties and disgrace forever follow them.

NEW YORK CITY has a murder mystery that promises to rank with the Pearl Bryan case. Miss Emelyne Reynolds, a rather rapid young woman, was murdered in her room at the Grand Hotel, with a piece of lead pipe, her skull being broken by the blow. There is no direct evidence against him, but Dr. S. J. Kennedy, a young dentist, is under arrest, and as he bears a striking resemblance to Scott Jackson, he must be guilty. Unlike Jackson's, however, this murder was for money, of which $2,000 or more, besides jewelry, were obtained. The woman, who was young and pretty, was very fond of playing the races and it was at them that she met Kennedy, who in all probability, is the murderer.

THERE are now over a million pensioners on the rolls, Commissioner Evans having granted 63,649 new claims and restored 4,089 during the year. The exact number, who are now pulling at the public teat, is 1,040,356. Although 33 years after the war more pensions were granted during the year than any year between 1869 and 1880. Pensions on account of the Spanish war are already pouring in and the end wont be in sight 100 years from now.

A PADUCAH judge has decided that a woman has as much business in a bar room as a man and declared the ordinance prohibiting her sex from entering such establishments unconstitutional. He's right. A drink for the gander should in all justice be drink for the goose.

ALGER might have made a tolerably fair sort of war secretary had peace continued to spread her wings, but the war demonstrated his utter incapacity to cope with a big job. The row that is on between him and Gen. Miles may further illucidate what a failure he is.

THE New York judge, who held that a woman is not bound to tell her age on the witness stand and not guilty of perjury if she states it incorrectly, is a modern Solomon, whom the women of the land, especially those of the doubtful ages, will rise up and call blessed.

THE report that J. R. McLean, the millionaire owner of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was to succeed Secretary of War Alger is denied most positively by him. McLean's politics must be of very a doubtful gender when even such a report could be started.

IT is a significant fact that Dewey kept the cable cut until he took Manila and then restored it to working order. He evidently did not want to be hampered with orders from Washington and a strategy board that knows nothing about strategy.

SAMPSON in speaking of the naval achievements says: "We did not make a mistake during the war." Doesn't this piece of egotism somewhat remind of the remark of the other things to the apples, when they met in a freshet in a stream?

THE president is said to have decided that he wants Luxon, if no more of the Philippines. He should have demanded the whole of them at first and he would have done so had he the courage of his convictions and was not a time server.

THE Ohio democrats in convention at Dayton to nominate minor State officers endorsed the Chicago platform, favor Bryan for president in 1900, demand an income tax, government ownership of the Nicaragua canal, a free government for Cuba, oppose any alliance with England, oppose an increase of the standing army and demand through Senator Foraker an investigation of the charges against Hanna. In regard to expansion the platform says: "We believe that until the people of the Islands of Cuba and the Philippines declare otherwise we should keep the faith upon which war was begun and prosecuted." Everybody expected to see the factions fight, but they were disappointed in witnessing any sensational incident, save the death of a delegate, who dropped dead of heart disease.

THE story of the discomforts and privations of the 1st Kentucky on ship to Port Rico, while the officers were living on the fat of the land and enjoying fine quarters, is enough to make a man's blood boil to see the difference made between a man who wears shoulder straps and one who does not. The average officer too treats a private with as little consideration as a dog. No wonder men, who have been raised to be their own masters, are not disposed to continue in such bondage, now that the war is over, to keep such fellows in fat jobs.

SECRETARY LONG has written a letter to the naval strategy board complimenting it highly for its work during the war. Its work was of such a character, however, that the less it did the more it counted. Dewey was not in communication with the board when he won his famous victories and Schley and Sampson had to ignore it.

THE Marion Falcon is greatly improved under the management of M. F. Hetherington, who has lately purchased it.

WAR ECHOES.

The military camp at Huntsville, Ala., will accommodate 40,000 men.

The 3d and 4th Kentucky, Cols. Smith and Colson, are to be mustered out.

The Queen Regent has signed a royal decree convoking the Cortes for September 5.

The girls need not despair. There is a big consignment of unloved heroes on the way home.

Three regiments from New York, Massachusetts and Kansas left Chickamauga for Lexington.

Men of the Fifth Illinois, at Lexington, are nearly unanimously in favor of being mustered out of service.

Day, of Ohio, Davis, of Minnesota, and Frye, of Maine, are three of the five peace commissioners chosen.

Fifth Pennsylvania, Twelfth Minnesota and Eighth Massachusetts are the latest arrivals in camp at Lexington.

The War Department is considering plans for quickly relieving the starving people in Cuba when the Spaniards evacuate.

Gen. Wood has provided for public schools on the American plan to accommodate 4,000 young Cubans at Santiago.

Capt. Sigbee has been advanced three numbers on the list of captains by the president for "extraordinary heroism."

Miss Helen Gould has given $25,000 to be used in purchasing delicacies for sick and wounded soldiers at Montauk Point, L. I.

A Quartermaster at San Francisco, and he is from Kansas, of course, got a year at hard labor for selling government supplies.

Capt. Albert L. Mills has been appointed superintendent of the West Point Military Academy, with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

The Alicante with 1,000 Spanish soldiers from Santiago arrived at La Coruna Wednesday. There were 60 deaths on board during the voyage.

Gen. Merritt has relinquished command of the troops at Manila to Gen. Otis and assumed his duties of military governor. The situation as regards the attitude of the insurgents is improving.

Gen. Miles says that Shafter's open disobedience of orders and Alger's disregard of recommendations are responsible for the terrible condition of the army at Santiago.

The 7th Ohio Cavalry has invited Morgan's men to come to the G. A. R. meeting in Cincinnati, beginning Sept. 7th, and be their guests. The counter-sign is "Dewey-Hobsbawm."

W. B. Childers, of Dry Ridge, whose son belonged to the 2nd Kentucky, and died of typhoid fever, brands the hospital surgeons as murderers and the attendants as thieves and ghouls.

The Louisville Post is right, when it says that the government should ask the men, not the officers, whether they desire to be mustered out, or retained, and abide by that decision.

Col. Colson's 4th Kentucky will be brigaded with Gen. Sanger's command at Lexington. He says after seeing the president that none of the volunteers will be mustered out for 60 days.

Chickamauga is to be practically deserted by the soldiers. All of them, save one regiment, which will be left there to protect government property, are to leave as soon as transportation can be provided.

Gen. Shafter says the records show that 23,726 Spaniards surrendered at the fall of Santiago. Of these about 3,000 were guerillas, leaving 21,000 to be sent to Spain. The last of them will embark tomorrow.

On the same day that the protocol was signed, the stars and stripes were raised over the government buildings at Honolulu amid very impressive ceremonies and the annexation of the Hawaii's was completed.

A Negro soldier of the Eighth Illinois was killed at San Luis Friday night while doing sentinel duty. He ordered some Cubans to halt and as they did not understand the order he fired and the fire was returned.

The famous bale of cotton known as "President McKinley's bale," the first of the crop of 1898, which already has been sold in Chicago and New York for the benefit of United States volunteers, was sold at St. Louis for $630.

Dr. William M. Gray, of the hospital ship Relief, says that the most important surgical fact of the war is the utter and eternal banishment of the probe from the surgeon's "kit," due to the discovery of the Roentgen or X-rays.

A battle between Spaniards and rebels is said to have been fought in the Vizcayas Islands. According to the Spanish version the Spanish loss was unimportant, while the insurgents are said to have lost 500. Several insurgent chieftains who were captured were shot.

This is the size of it. A soldier said to the Danville Advocate: "Men in the regiment drawing $150 a month as captain, when they didn't make $10 a month at home, are of course unwilling to quit, while fellows who left good jobs to fight for their country are not anxious to do police duty for $13 a month."

Admiral Sampson expresses the opinion that the war has taught important lessons in naval construction, chief of which is the importance of fire-proof ships. He says there should be practically no woodwork in fighting vessels and that the torpedo boat has not had a fair trial, and does not concur in the opinion that guns of small caliber are more effective than the large guns.

Following are the commissioners named: For Cuba: United States, Gens. J. F. Wade, M. C. Butler and Rear Admiral Sampson. For Spain, Gen. Parrado, Admiral Paster and Marquis Montoro. For Porto Rico: United States, Gen. John H. Brooke, Rear Admiral Schley and Gen. W. W. Gordon. For Spain, Gen. Otego, Commodore Vallarino and Judge Advocate Sanchez del Aguila. The Cuban commissioners must meet at Havana and the Porto Rican commissioners at San Juan within 30 days from the signing of the protocol, which was on August 12.
